

To Live Is to Hide

Lacuna Coil

While emotions try to come out Desperately seeking their path wait so I cannot be outdone finish this search for the meaning hide emotions cause a blow out Desperately seeking their blast

finish this search for the meaning

I'm going to freeze
Is it my imagination ?
It's underground

What I need now
What I need is live to hide
When you smothered my devotion
With your lies

And I feel now
As I did that time
That I'm wondering why Still I make you cry

While emotions try to come out
Desperately seeking their path
finish this search for the meaning

hide emotions cause a blow out
Desperately seeking their blast

Suffering while i'm depending on seasons Roots under me are embracing the earth
