

The sunset falls in Wichita
Yellow dances through the blue
The wheat fields catch a glimpse of Heaven
Makes me think of you
Even when you're miles away
You're always on my mind
Lord, knows you're in my heart
Even when I close my eyes

You are golden
Precious as a prayer
Flyin' up through the air
While the rain is fallin'
Golden
Timeless as a kiss
Baby I don't wanna miss
Another perfect moment
To tell you
How you make me feel
The day you strolled in
My heart was stolen
'Cause you are golden

Smallest parts of who you are
Are everything to me
From the way you laugh, the way you cry
To the way you love all me
Shadows run and darkness fades
When you come around
My single star among the grey
Always shining down

You are golden
Precious as a prayer
Flyin' up through the air
While the rain is fallin'
Golden
Timeless as a kiss
Baby I don't wanna miss
Another perfect moment
To tell you
How you make me feel
The day you strolled in
My heart was stolen
(Heart was stolen)

'Cause you are golden, lovely
Oh so hard to find
Yeah you are goodness, forgiveness
Of the purest kind
Ooh yeah

From the day you strolled in
My heart was stolen
You'll be the hand I'm holdin'
When the heavens open
'Cause you are golden.
