

Something 'Bout a Woman

Lady Antebellum

Well there's something 'bout a woman with my t-shirt on hair in her eyes, no make-up on standin there smilin with my coffee cup yeah there's somethin 'bout a woman that's easy to love

Yeah there's somethin 'bout a woman that's a clear blue sky Ain't found nothin better that'll get you high You're the colors of the sun at the end of the day Yeah there's somethin 'bout a woman that makes you feel that way

She's like fire on the mountain
Like some kind of heaven that's pourin' down on me
She's a child
She's a lady
She's got everything that I could ever need Yeah, there's somethin 'bout a woman and me

Yeah there's somethin 'bout a woman
when she gets fixed up Slips a red dress on and her eyes light up I love to watch her walkin from across the room
Yeah there's somethin 'bout a woman and the way she moves me
she moves me
oh, she moves me

She's like fire on the mountain
Like some kind of heaven that's pourin' down on me
She's a child
She's a lady
She's got everything that I could ever need
Yeah, there's somethin 'bout a woman and me

She moves me
she moves me
oh, she moves me
She's like fire on the mountain
Like some kind of heaven that's pourin' down on me
She's a child
She's a lady
She's got everything that I could ever need
Yeah, there's somethin 'bout a woman and me

Yeah there's somethin 'bout a woman that makes me still There's somethin 'bout a woman that always will
