

Golden Girl

Ladyhawke

I saw you walking with hope in the moment
Your starry eyes mending hearts that are broken
But this is not what you'd think I'd be into
I guess it's all much too easy to cut through

You might think I'm crazy
Lost in the good old days been
Too fast for all who chase me
I'm lost to rhymes that made me

There's no way up, there's no way down
You stole my heart but you throw it around
You give it up then you give it away
Your golden girl waits another day
Ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh
Your golden waits another day

This is the daughter of love running wild
We are the children that play on the other side
But here I am holding cards that will show you
My aching heart's all too easy to cut through

You might think I'm crazy
Lost in the good old days been
Too fast for all who chase me
I'm lost to rhymes that made me

There's no way up, there's no way down
You stole my heart but you throw it around
You give it up then you give it away
Your golden girl waits another day
Ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh
Your golden waits another day

You wrote to me, "How can it be?
You live your life when I can give no guarantee?
This hurts me more, than it does you
I'm hoping my intentions you don't misconstrue"

There's no way up, there's no way down
You stole my heart but you throw it around
You give it up then you give it away
Your golden girl waits another day
Ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh
