

Another Breakfast with You

Ladytron

I don't want to fight, just want a piece of your life
Oh, if you come out to play
I don't want you to say... anything I didn't feel a thing when you told me that you didn't feel a thing when I told you that I didn't feel a thing, another breakfast with you

Did you ever fall in love?
For a quarter an hour, or above?
