

Beauty*2

Ladytron

I sent you out to play last night
The alarms went off at three.
Funny how I'm not loving now
Lonely does not guarantee.

I sent you out to play last night
The alarms went off at three.
Funny how I'm not loving now
He's not coming home to me.

I sent you out to play last night
The alarms went off at three.
Funny how I'm not loving now
He's not coming home to me.

And I move out of love.
If only there was only no consequence.
I'd watch it all turn to dust.

Hey can I go with you, my beauty number 2?
Hey can I go with you, when the rendezvous' over?
