

They Gave You a Heart, They Gave You a Name

Ladytron

They Gave You A Heart, They Gave You A Name
Released to the wild, with no one to tame
You need a place, to disappear
That's why you're here, escapeless

Tunes that keep climbing off the floor
Lay down beside me
They've been knocking at your door
Lay down beside me
Lay down beside me
Lay down beside me

They Gave You A Heart, They Gave You A Name
Released to the wild, with no one to tame
You need a shape, for your fear
That's why you're here, stateless

Tunes that keep climbing off the floor
Lay down beside me
They've been knocking at your door
Lay down beside me
Lay down beside me
Lay down beside me
Lay down beside me
Lay down beside me
