They Gave You a Heart, They Gave You a Name

Ladytron

They Gave You A Heart, They Gave You A Name Released to the wild, with no one to tame You need a place, to disappear That's why you're here, escapeless

Tunes that keep climbing off the floor
Lay down beside me
They've been knocking at your door
Lay down beside me
Lay down beside me
Lay down beside me

They Gave You A Heart, They Gave You A Name Released to the wild, with no one to tame You need a shape, for your fear That's why you're here, stateless

Tunes that keep climbing off the floor
Lay down beside me
They've been knocking at your door
Lay down beside me
Lay down beside me
