Back from the window Everything's subtle Temporary sanctuary

Look through the window
Everything's subtle
Tailored to fit, but nothing's that simple

Gold, you will always come to me
With the power of deception
Gold won't ever comfort me
The color of deception
The color of deception
Move closer
Subterfuge
Illusion's there for all to see

There's no one left to rescue me Glass and stone, it cuts like a knife And gold won't ever comfort me

Gold, you will always come to me With the power of deception Gold won't ever comfort me The color of deception The color of deception
