

A Crimson Cosmos

Lake of Tears

Great cosmos
eternal ocean
spring forth now colder motions break dawn now
break new day
sweet silent colder changes

Lay still night
in the forest
bring fall now bring the ever rest cold silence
no emotions
feel changes through the ocean

One went to seek the loss
one went to seek the darker side of us One went to seek the cross
only to find a crimson cosmos

Great cosmos
crimson ocean
waves riding empty motions bring twilight
bring new night
now silent demon sleeping

Lay still night
for the angels
no laughter or no angers
cold silence
no emotions
Feel changes through our ocean

One went to seek the loss
one went to seek the darker side of us
only to find a crimson cosmos
