Purified

Lamb of God

Can the pestilence Within you be bled out May I have the honor Of this amputation?

Know that you have made an enemy To show you the meaning of indignity I live now solely for the pleasure Of your slow decay

Feel the pain of vengeance burn you Soon you shall know silence, silence

With trembling hands You'll beg for mercy I'll show you none I'll show you none

Purified by my hand In this my world in this my world

It is salvation

Your futile existence draws to a close
A cloak of lies drops, the lies drop, the lies drop
