

Tomorrow Never Came

Lana Del Rey

Hey, what you doing?
Not a lot
Shaking and moving
In a local spot
Baby don't ask me why
Don't ask me why
(Why, why, why, why, why, why?)

Lay, Lady lay
On the side of a paradise
In the Tropic of Cancer
'Cause if I had my way
You'd would always stay
And I'd be your tiny dancer, honey

I waited for you
In the spot you said to wait
In the city, on a park bench
In the middle of the pouring rain
'Cause I adored you
I just wanted things to be the same
You said to meet me there tomorrow
But tomorrow never came
Tomorrow never came

Hey, what you thinking?
Penny for your thoughts?
Those lights are blinking
On that old jukebox
But don't ask me why
Just swallow some wine
(Wi-wi-wi-wi-wi-wi-wine)

Stay, baby stay
On the side of a paradise
In the Tropic of Cancer
'Cause if I had my way
You'd would always stay
And you'd be my tiny dancer, baby

I waited for you
In the spot you said to wait
In the city, on a park bench
In the middle of the pouring rain
'Cause I adored you
I just wanted things to be the same
You said you'd meet me out there tomorrow
But tomorrow never came
Tomorrow never came

Roses are in your country house
We play guitar on your barn
And everyday felt like some day and I
I wish we had stayed home
And I could put on the radio
To our favorite song
Lennon and Yoko

We will play all day long
Isn't life crazy I said
Now that I'm singing with Sean
Wow, oh

I could keep waiting for you
In the spot we always wait
In the city, on the park bench
In the summer, on the pouring rain
Honey don't ignore me
I just wanted to be the same
You said you loved me like no tomorrow
I guess tomorrow never came
No, no, no
Tomorrow never came
No, no
Tomorrow never came
No, no
