

Dream of The Dragonfly

Lana Lane

Out of the dark
Her beads of gold
Wake the songs of time
Bright emerald wings
Reach the sky
Freeing dreams of the dragonfly

Mirror of life shine on

Her spirit flies to points unknown
The whispering wind calls her home
Her diamond tears will feed the sea
And fill the sky with memories

An amber sun
Lights the dawn
Long way far from home
She dreams to see
The stars once more
On the moon she'll roam

Mirror of life shine on

Her spirit flies to points unknown
The whispering wind calls her home
Her diamond tears will feed the sea
And fill the sky with memories
