

Ghost Beside My Bed

Lana Lane

it could've been a blessing or it could have been a dream

things aren't always what they seem it happened in a instant it happened at night married to the moment like a bird in flight i saw it once and it started to fade i reached out to touch and i asked it to stay please please precious light must you leave so soon tonight

i'm either dreaming or i'm out of my head

there's no ghost beside my bed my skin feels so cold my heart beats like it gonna explode

there's no fear there's no fright just another visit from a spirit in the night can somebody tell me what this means to me or show me the truth behind what i see

tonight

are you a message from the grey beyond or my mind telling me sanity's gone it must be dreaming or i'm out of my head

there's no ghost beside my bed

i feel strange

i feel so strained

i can't explain i feel so strange.....
