

Love Is An Illusion

Lana Lane

she's hittin' like a heart attack trouble comin' down the sea of love is a wonderful thing until you finally drown you're buying the dream now baby wait 'til she takes it away she's pourin' it on like rain gonna pull you under oceans of pain

'cause love it's an illusion and time, time, time is slipping away she's runnin' like a thief in the night runnin' out of time you're gonna wake up, wake up alone you been bitin' her line you bought the dream now baby and sugar just took it away she left you nothin' but pain gonna roll out lightnin', thunder and rain love it's an illusion and time, time, time is slippin' away
