

Raining

Lana Lane

Twilight falls
Into the night I see a shadow falling
Moonlit halls
Out of the dark I hear my memory calling

Sands of time upon your skin
You can feel the rain begin

It's raining on the dark side of the moon
Shadows fill my empty rooms
Someone, somewhere
Knows what I've been through
It's raining on the dark side of the moon

Darkness falls
Listen close you'll hear the water falling
Limestone walls
Deep in the night you see the full moon crawling

Sands of time upon your skin
You can feel the rain begin

It's raining on the dark side of the moon
Shadows fill my empty rooms
Someone, somewhere
Knows what I've been through
It's raining on the dark side of the moon

Dawn light sun
Shadows of dreams are but a recollection
Orion
Fading away beyond a new horizon

Sands of time upon your skin
You can feel the rain begin

It's raining on the dark side of the moon
Shadows fill my empty rooms
Someone, somewhere
Knows what I've been through
It's raining on the dark side of the moon
It's raining on the dark side of the moon
Shadows fill my empty rooms
Someone, somewhere
Knows what I've been through
It's raining on the dark side of the moon
