

Souls of the mermaids

Lana Lane

I smile at the sunset
Sitting on the ocean
Like a queen on a blue velvet throne
I long for a vision
Of white coral castles
With ruby stairs guiding me home

Deep inside of the blue
Lies a city true
Shining bright as a crystal tower
Waves of diamonds and pearls
Lead the way to a world
Where a soul feeds the oceans power

Souls of the mermaids
Dance on the sea
Singing songs
Of mystery
Drink the memories
Of sapphire love
The song will reveal
Heaven above

Wandering through
A graveyard of ships
That aren't really vessels at all
They are empty cities
Of long, long ago
Can't you hear Lorelei's call

Deep inside of the blue
Lies a city true
Shining bright as a crystal tower
Walls of silver and gold
Never growing old
Fill my heart with the ocean's power

Souls of the mermaids
Dance on the sea
Singing songs
Of mystery
Drink the memories
Of sapphire love
The song will reveal
