

Outlander

Land Of Tales

Here I am just fearing the outer world I want to be in Things change too fast to get a grip on them wanna see you now to my heart's content

And you you're only imitating imagining the world you live in Like me you're only sympathizing those strangers who come to you

Just an outlander now
I'll stay outlanding anyhow
and to find you here is to find you not at all
Just an outlander now
I'll stay outlanding anyhow
seems like I'm heading for the fall

I lie an alibi to myself but as I find it now It doesn't help

You're only looking for someone else and what will happen now only time will tell

In need of compassion and confession their destiny is just like mine

One day I come to you to find that I've become

Just an outlander now
I'll stay outlanding anyhow
and to find you here is to find you not at all
Just an outlander now
seems like I'm heading for the fall
