

Silence

Land Of Tales

Silence is a prey
a soft lonely word and a new day
It's a touch of the feather a kingdom of light It's now and forever

And when the battle is over
worries are gone
days are gold
and my work is done

I'm waiting for the days go by silent hours of my mind
I'm waiting for the tide
waiting for the silent night

Silence is a prey
a soft lonely word and a new day
It's early morning rain cloudy day when you are lying

worries are gone

When the skin is deep and the night is on when you are here the day is done
