

Open Your Eyes

Lansdowne

Hey, I've had an idea, why don't you just sit there for A change?

You've been in control so long, but let's play a new Game

You keep telling me you know best
I'ts time to give that shit a good rest
Today I'm gonna make it clear
That you'll hear me or I'm outta here

Give it up, had enough and I've got to
Get going 'cause I can't get through
Give it up, had enough and I've got to
Be strong, move along and tell you
I'm breaking free, I'm breaking free
Get going 'cause I can't get through
Open your eyes

What were you expecting just to come collecting on My dreams?
Hanging'em over my head as if they're connected to your Strings
You keep telling me you know best
I'ts time to give that shit a good rest
Today I'm gonna make it clear
That you'll hear me or I'm out of here

Give it up, had enough and I've got to
Get going 'cause I can't get through
Give it up, had enough and I've got to
Be strong, move along and tell you
I'm breaking free, I'm breaking free
Get going 'cause I can't get through
I'm breaking free, I'm breaking free
Be strong, move along and tell you

I've got you all figured out (And someday)
All this will come back around (But today)
I'm gonna leave this behind, yeah

Give it up, had enough and I've got to
Get going 'cause I can't get through
Give it up, had enough and I've got to
Be strong, move along and tell you
I'm breaking free, I'm breaking free
Get going 'cause I can't get through
I'm breaking free, I'm breaking free
Be strong, move along and tell you
I'm breaking, I'm breaking
I'm breaking , I'm breaking
Be strong, move along and tell you
Open your eyes
