

Watch Me Burn

Lansdowne

I'm addicted and I like it,
The best high that I've ever been on,
She got me hooked, as a earthquake shook, now I'm fighting to hang on

She needs a drink and I'm buying,
She needs a ride and I'm driving her home,
Kisses like cocaine, hits me like a freight train,
I can't tell her "no".

She'll be an angel begging for more, (now she likes it)
Grab your fuse and head for the door, (when she likes it)
She's a world-class player, guess I'll never learn,
She lights me up just to watch me burn.

She'll drink your ass under the table,
Then dance upon it when you're out on the floor.
Kisses like cocaine, hits me like a freight train,
Shoot me up and keep me going all night.
Kisses like cocaine, hits me like a freight train,
Makes me feel alive.

She'll be an angel begging for more, (now she likes it)
Grab your fuse and head for the door, (when she likes it)
She's a world-class player, guess I'll never learn,
She lights me up just to watch me burn.

She's a devil without the horns, (yeah she adds em)
She's a rebel yelling for more, (when she rides it)
She's a world-class player, guess I'll never learn,
She lights me up just to watch me burn.

She'll be an angel begging for more,
Grab your fuse and head for the door,
She's a world-
class player, guess I'll never learn, (when she likes it)
She lights me up

She'll be an angel begging for more, (now she likes it)
Grab your fuse and head for the door, (when she likes it)
She's a well-dressed player, guess I'll never learn,
She lights me up just to watch me burn.

She's a devil without the horns, (whoa)
She's a rebel yelling for more, (whoa)
She's a world-class player, guess I'll never learn
She lights me up
She lights me up just to watch me burn.
