LA, LA, where you and I found, found each other LA, LA, dirty good love don't last forever New York, New York, you've stolen my heart and run it over New York, New York, New York, New York

Be right back, I'm gonna cry myself, myself to sleep How'd you in fall in love, in love without me? Be right back, I'm gonna throw myself against the wall Be right back, tell me you'll be right back

You were, you were, the drug of my choice, my great escape now You are, you are, the drug of the town, who hasn't had a taste? Come on, come on, everything's fine, fine in LA New York, New York, no more, no more

LA, New York LA, New York LA, New York But I want you more LA, New York LA, New York LA, New York LA, New York But I want you more LA, New York
