LANY

Thrift store fashion, imperfect tattoos Taking showers minus shampoo

You are my favourite everything
Been telling girls that since I was 16
Shut up, I love you, you're my best friend

Get ya under pink skies, I know exactly where we should go Cause I love the way your green eyes mix with that Malibu indig
o Talking under pink skies, I think our hearts are starting to sh ow
And it's better, you and I, under pink skies

Underwear, I kinda care, wanna look good for you British bomb, you turn me on no matter what ya do

You are my favourite everything
Been telling you that since 2015
Shut up, I love you, you're my best friend

Get you under pink skies, I know exactly where we should go
Cause I love the way your green eyes mix with that Malibu indig
Talking under pink skies, I think our hearts are starting to sh
ow
And it's better, you and I, under pink skies

We can work it out
You and I are meant to be together
This is how it's supposed to feel I'm in love with how this feels

Get ya under pink skies, I know exactly where we should go
Cause I love the way your green eyes mix with that Malibu indig
Talking under pink skies, I think our hearts are starting to sh
ow
That it's better, you and, I under pink skies

Get you under pink skies, I know exactly where we should go
Cause I love the way your green eyes mix with that Malibu indig
Talking under pink skies, I think our hearts are starting to sh
ow
And it's better, you and I, under pink skies
