

Thick And Thin

LANY

Late night, your eyes fell to the floor
I'm trying to make sense but you're losing your patience
Hands talk, won't stop, we go to war
In the heat of the moment you think that we're broken

I could see my whole life with you, baby
Now you got me thinking that I'm crazy 'cause you're

Out the door
Just one mistake, you say you're not
In love no more
But was it really love if you can
Leave me for
Something so innocent, is this the end?
Thought you'd be there thru thick and thin

Can't sleep, can't eat, my mind's a mess
What are you thinking? You were happy last weekend
All the good times, how'd you forget?
I was your best friend, remember when you said

You could see your whole life with me, baby
Now you got me thinking that I'm crazy cause you're

Out the door
Just one mistake, you say you're not
In love no more
But was it really love if you can
Leave me for
Something so innocent, is this the end?
Thought you'd be there thru thick and thin

Thought you'd be there thru thick and thin
Thought you'd be there thru thick and thin
Thought you'd be there thru thick and thin

Said you'd be there for me thru everything
Said that you'd have my back with anything
Said you'd be there for me thru everything
Said that you'd have my back with anything

Out the door
Just one mistake, you say you're not
In love no more
But was it really love if you can
Leave me for
Something so innocent, is this the end?
Thought you'd be there thru thick and thin [x2]

Said you'd be there for me thru everything
Said that you'd have my back with anything
Said you'd be there for me thru everything
Said that you'd have my back with anything
