

Panda Eyes

Lapko

Million miles away
You're alone with Your empty words
In a Dreadful house with blocked windows
It's a House behind my back &
I will never turn
I swear I'll never return

Sounds pretentious
But it hurts
Take back your empty words
Dreams floating away into the maze
I try to follow

Blind eyes in my ears
Have sense of smell
That's because My body felt strange vibrations
In front of us are the hills
But I will never turn
I swear I'll never return

Sounds pretentious
But it hurts
Take back your empty words
Dreams floating away into the maze
I try to follow

I ride through the fire like a knight
I can feel the shine of my blue moon
I'm alone with my sword
I'll show to the eagles how to fly
Tonight I'll fight till
All my enemies Are Dead
Call me a warrior

I tried to give you my everything
While you were running out
My sword just was not enough for you
I wanted to give
I was ready to give
