

Everything You Asked For

Lapush

spend all of my days wandering how to leave you alone I've been walking a mile just to see your smile now I walk alone my mistake, my mistake, my mistake and I couldn't be everything you asked for, everything you asked for I couldn't be everything you asked for, everything you asked for left on a road on a street by your home in a town where we lived picked up in a heartbeat pieces all around me that I can't mend my mistake, my mistake, my mistake

and I couldn't be everything you asked for, everything you asked for

how could you say that I was unkind? and how could you say aww that I wasn't a friend love, that I wasn't a friend?

and I couldn't be everything you asked for, everything you asked for

hey ah hey ah
