

Always

Lara Fabian

Under the same sky
Waiting for each other
Under the same sky
Trying to survive
Searching for the heart
That will understand us
And for a moment know
That we are one soul

Always
Give yourself completely
Know that what you are
Is the gift to share
Through the love you dare to breathe

Always
Know that you are the essence
Of the perfect plan
Beyond every doubt
You shine if you dream out loud

Under the same sky
We seek inspiration
Under the same sky
We feed our own fire
To keep up the faith
We pray for tomorrow
When it is today
We can change our way

Always
Give yourself completely
Know that what you are
Is the gift to share
Through the love you dare to breathe

Always
Know that you are the essence
Of the perfect plan
Beyond every doubt
You shine if you dream out loud

Always
Give yourself the meaning
Know that what you are
Is the gift to share
Through the love you dare
Through the love you dare to breathe

Always
Know that you are the essence
Of the perfect plan
Beyond every doubt
You shine when you dream out loud
Beyond every doubt
You shine when you dream out loud
