

Desperate Housewife

Lara Fabian

My body aches
And my brain denies
My stomach hurts
But I'd better hide
Good days are gone
As my nights turn light
Where do I go
Why do I fall and fight
Running and rushing every second of my life
Is this a dream I had?
I do not realize!

Stop!
I will not take this life
War or kill to survive
Give me some love and life
Stop! I look at my poor heart,
It keeps some beating and
I am a desperate housewife

Virginitities
To become my lie
So fast we learn
To arrow fake smile
So when we crave
For a true desire
All we can do is buy and buy and buy

Possessing, earning, winning every single time
We fight an emptiness that leaves us all behind

Stop
I will not take this life
War or kill to survive
Give me some love and lives
Give me some love and stop
I look at my poor heart
It keeps some beating
I am a desperate housewife

Stop
I will not take this life
War or kill to survive
Give me some love and lives
Dej mi lásku a nechám toho
Give me some love and stop
I still can change this birth
I will love and live
To be a wonderful housewife
To be a wonderful housewife
To be a wonderful housewife
To be a wonderful
housewife
