Faith Hope and Treachery

Disconnected, dysfunctional soulmates with nobody else sing a song for the New Ice Age greed has made us lonely.

Faith, hope and treachery faith, hope and treachery faith, hope and treachery faith, hope and treachery.

Children of the 80's values shaped by Reagan greed don't stick long with anything going gets tough, change the channel and flee.

In out twist shout.

Everyone's scared of everyone else 'specially who they love the most no kind act goes unpunished show you care just shows you're weak.

So take 'em all for what they're worth otherwise they'll get you first #1 must be preserved friends aren't for keeps, they're for dessert.

In out twist and shout.

Faith, hope and treachery faith, hope and treachery faith, hope and treachery faith, hope and treachery.

Years go by, get sick of games warmth gets repressed just like hate Reagan children flunk out at love it's always someone else's fault.

It's always someone else's fault it's always someone else's fault it's always someone else's fault faith, hope and treachery.
