

Ain't Gonna Worry About Love No More

Lari White

Well, there's rain on the window and there's wind at the door
But, I ain't gonna worry about love no more
There's some broken dreams washed up on the shore
But, I ain't gonna worry about love no more

Ain't gonna worry about love (or what it's all about)
Ain't gonna spend another night tryin' to figure it out
Or waste another minute wonderin' (what is it for)
No, I ain't gonna worry about love no more, no more

There's some photographs hangin' up that I'm takin' down
'Cause I don't want to think about love right now
You see, I'm finally standing on some steady ground
And I don't want to think about love right now

Don't want to think about love (or what it's all about)
Don't gonna spend another night tryin' to figure it out
Or waste another minute wonderin' (why or how)
No, I don't want to think about love right now

Now, I ain't sayin' I'm givin' up on love for good
But I'm in no hurry to trouble my mind
I'd be wise to take a little time

So, don't go lookin' over here with them eyes of blue
'Cause I ain't fallin' in love with you
I got people to see, I got a lot of things to do and I ain't fallin' in love with you

I ain't fallin' in love with you (no, it wouldn't be smart)
I ain't lettin' you anywhere around my heart
You know, I'd have to be crazy (what you takin' me for)
Oh, I ain't fallin' for it, don't want to think about it
Ain't gonna worry about love no more
