

Wake Up

LaRue

Wake up another day
it's funny how you put yourself in cruise control you say you say your life is very plain waiting for a spark to light the coal inside and that is when you feel alive but that's just where it starts are you too comfortable in the dark?

CHORUS

you threw it all away
you had so much to gain
now there's nothing left to claim (repeat)
and now you're lost inside of you what am i supposed to do

generation lost
all for everything until it comes to the cross a fear of faith becomes their cage they're getting used to feeling weightless
breathing fakeness
dreaming faithless

CHORUS

To talk to you
feeling weightless
breathing fakeness
dreaming faithless

what am i supposed to do?
