Lasgo

I'm searching for this place
Where I don't need to worry about you
Where I don't feel sorrow
Don't need to think about tomorrow or about you

I need a little time
So I can change my mind
Yeah....
I need to be on my own
This loneliness feels strong
Deep inside of me

I'm searching for a long time
But I'm never gonna find what I'm looking for

This is all I need
This is what I want
...no I won't ask for more and I don't really mind to leave this all behind
It doesn't feel like home
