

Serendipity

Lasgo

I was lost when I first met you
How you smiled then walked away
I tried so hard to forget you
Just to find you here today

God it feels like we were always meant to be
I guess that you could call it serendipity

You turn the darkness into light
When something's wrong you make it right
I will give in without a fight
I don't know how I don't know why
But when we touch I get so high
You make me feel like I can fly

You're the shoulder I can cry on
When the world gets hard on me
You're the one I can rely on
Only you can set me free

It's like I've always known that we were meant to be
Is it luck or is it serendipity

You turn the darkness into light
When something's wrong you make it right
I will give in without a fight
I don't know how I don't know why
But when we touch I get so high
You make me feel like I can fly
