At the end of the rainbow you can lay me down Right by the sea by the water and kiss me kiss me twice But there ain't no rush This is not just another big big crush But there ain't no rush This is not just another big big big crush By the sand by the desert you can put me to sleep In the war by the frontlines you can make me weak But there ain't no rush This is not just another big big crush But there ain't no rush This is not just another big big big crush But there ain't no rush This is not just another big big crush But there ain't no rush This is not just another big big big crush