

Two Hands And Ten Fingers

Last Days Of April

It seems like it all comes crashing.
I'm sorry so damn sorry.
Shove me aside so you can take it all.
You always took it all.
With me aside no need for you to whore.
You won't hurt me no more.
How can your two hands and ten fingers move nine planets.
Why do you keep it up when we both know you won't manage.
It seems like it all comes crashing down.
I'm sorry so damn sorry.
We both know this balloon won't take us too far.
Shove me aside so you can steal it all.
You always stole it all. with me aside you'll save yourself from me.
And maybe me from you
