

Draw me a card to gamble on
Find me a lie worth living for
Show me the path you move along
Teach me a time back when we tried it, we lost our touch
We left it, we learned to much.

It seems these days they are, yeah their getting longer and longer (2x)

Read me a line to memorize
Allow me to take what I need
I am the face you'll recognize
Treasure the time back when we tried it
We lost our touch we left it we leaned so much

It seems these days they are, yeah their getting longer and longer (6x)
