

Maybe Tomorrow

Last Winter

Maybe tomorrow will bring brighter days
Somehow will fortune find my way
Maybe tomorrow I'll forget today
I know exactly what you would say
So put away
These weapons of our words
And arm yourself
To start this over
It feels as if I've been dreaming
So lost without you
But I won't forget to breathe
It feels as if I've been sleeping
So lost without you
So don't forget me
Maybe tomorrow I'll forget your name
But you know that life would never be the same
So put away
These weapons of our words
And arm yourself
To start this over
It feels as if I've been dreaming
So lost without you
But I won't forget to breathe
It feels as if I've been sleeping
So lost without you
But I won't forget to...
And arm yourself
(So arm yourself to start this over)
It feels as if I've been dreaming
So lost without you
But I won't forget to breathe
It feels as if I've been sleeping
So lost without you
So don't forget me
