Minutes

Late Night Alumni

Love to take minutes like these, minutes of peace, and keep the m close. In this light, little to hide, here by my side, and so connecte d. Surreal ease, leisurely free, hushed and serene, head to toe. Can't say why I'm suddenly shy, humble and mild, and so content ed. Is this real? Am I still here? Still killing time. Watching minutes die. Is this real? Am I still here? Still killing time. Watching minutes die. Am I still here? Is this real? Am I still here? Still killing time. Watching minutes die.
