

The Rest Of You

Late Night Alumni

You say love has given up
Yet here's my heart, still filling up
Hoping that you will follow
Poetry inside my head
Thoughts sublime that must be said
Here am I, explaining why I care.

Still feel the warmth of you
Can't get enough of you
Still think the world of you
Still want the rest of you
Still feel the best if yet to come

In the heart where love can grow
Takes to time for it to show
But sometimes we just don't realize
Look into my eyes and see
A simple truth you... ll find in me
Here am I, explaining why...

Still feel the warmth of you
Can't get enough of you
Still think the world of you
Still want the rest of you
Still feel the best if yet to come
