

Too Many Emo Days

Latterman

well i'm finding myself laughing the days away.

familiar faces sitting next to me.

i'm thinking something i thought i'd never say.

i'm finding out just what i need.

and i'm so sick of always feeling down.

and i'm sick of always letting

all those nights just fade away.

so i'm turning my back on those days

and walking away.

so i'm seeing that it seems easy to go ahead and just find my place.

i'll be okay with a smile on my face today.

so forget those days today.
