

The Me That You Don't See

Laura Marano

I've been wishin' for somethin' missin'
To fill this empty space
To show the person behind the curtain
So you'll understand
Who I really am

The me that you don't see
Is praying there's a chance you still believe
Tell me that I'm worth it
I'll prove that I deserve it
And I can be
The me that you don't see

This dream we're facing is so amazing
And I want to fit in
My whole life I wanted, to be a part of something
I'm reaching out my hand
I'll show you that I can

Ooohhh

The me that you don't see
Is praying there's a chance you still believe
Tell me that I'm worth it
I'll prove that I deserve it
And I can be
The me that you don't see

To be standing tall
No shadows at all
That's all I really wanna do
To be a circle of one
Stepping into the sun
Sharing the light that's here with you
I'm here with you

Ooohhh

The me that you don't see
Is praying there's a chance you still believe
Tell me that I'm worth it
I'll prove that I deserve it
And I can be

Ooohhh

The me that you don't see
Is praying there's a chance you still believe
Tell me that I'm worth it
I'll prove that I deserve it
And I can be
The me that you don't see
