

What's Comin' Over Me

Laura Marano

All I know is You're reaching for
The love that's yours
That's spoken for
Can't you see
What It means to me
A friend to be
Is all I need

You're taken
But you're making trouble
Tell me cause the stake are high
You're fakin'
cause I'm breaking, yeah
The mistakes I make will just be mine

I know
I don't know what I'm doin'
What do I think I'm provin'
You're a blank page
I'm trying to read
I know
I don't know what I'm sayin'
What kind of game I'm playin'
This is hardly what I need
Don't know what's comin over me

You and I
We must decide
If what's inside
We just can't hide
If we feel
It's something real
Our friendship deal
May never heal
You're taken
But you're makin' trouble
Tell me cause the stakes are high
Fakin' cause I'm breaking, yeah
The mistakes I make will just be mine

I know
I don't know what I'm doin'
What do I think I'm provin'
You're a blank page
I'm trying to read
I know
I don't know what I'm sayin'
What kind of game I'm playin'
This is hardly what I need
Don't know what's comin' over me

The way you look at me
Should be the way you look at her
Got me thinkin' you're not satisfied
You used to say everyday
That she was your world

Now I'm thinking that's all a lie

I know
I don't know what I'm doin'
What do I think I'm provin'
You're a blank page
I'm trying to read

I know
I don't know what I'm thinkin'
I do know that you're sinkin'
What makes you think
That I'll sink too

I know
I don't know what will happen
You'd rather be here laughin'
Mess and I will laugh with you
Don't know what's comin' over me

I know
I don't know what I'm doin'
What do I think I'm provin'
You're a blank page
I'm tryin' to read
I know
I don't know what I'm sayin'
What kinda game I'm playin'
This is hardly what I need
Don't know what's comin' over me
