

How Can I

Laura Marling

We've been riding up mountains
turning corners in our lives
we would have taken any buses
Headed for Telluride
We stopped in the desert
In the middle of the night
Looked to the stars on the old roadside
You look at me and say 'Look at the moon,
Take it in It'll be gone soon

I'm taking more risks now,
I'm stepping out of line.
I put up my fists now,
Until I get what's mine.
Should have been you, could have been anyone.
Now i've missed my chance to run
I would have gone anywhere with you
I would have gone if you'd asked me to
How can I live without it?
How can I live?

I wrote you a letter
posted out Central L.A.
Now if you ever come through here won't you come take me away?

Could have been you and should have been anyone
Now I've missed my chance to run
And I would have gone anywhere with you.
I would have gone if you'd asked me to
How can I live without you?
How can I live?

I'm going back east where I belong
Where I belong
How can I live without you?
How can I live?
