

Love Be Brave

Laura Marling

In a world you can get lost in
I find my way to him
I am purpose and regret
You're a feeling I'll forget

What will I do then?
How did I sleep at night
With you far from my side?
Hold me darling, make no sound
Silence speaks for me

Love be brave
No one will say it but you
And that has not yet been
The easy thing for you to do

How does he make love seem sweet
Isn't that some heavy feat
Do the birds suffer so
Do they sing because they know
This life don't go slow

Love be brave
No one will save you but me
And that has not yet been
The safest place for you to be

What will I do then?
Here comes a change over me
Something strange takes over me
I am brave and love is sweet
And silence speaks for him and me
