

You Gave Your Life

Laura Story

I was found
As a beggar, as an orphan with no home
No family
I was found
With a stain as deep as darkness fills the night
But the wonder does not lie in the depression of my state
But that You found me at all is simply grace upon grace

You gave Your life for me
This man dreams oh to see
How far, how wide
How deep, how high
Is the relentless love of God

And now I find
That the comforts of this heart are not in things
Or in the joys that this life brings
But just to be
The reworkmanship of God to know He's with me
To know He's for me
And I can't begin to comprehend just why He's chosen me
But I'd spend a thousand lifetimes giving thanks
Giving You thanks

You gave Your life for me
This man dreams oh to see
How far, how wide
How deep, how high
Is the relentless love of God

I'm undeserving
Of grace so amazing
Though free to me
It cost You everything

You gave Your life for me
This man dreams so to see
How far, how wide
How deep, how high
Is the relentless love of God
