

Orphan Mae

Laura Veirs

I don't know where i come from but i know it's a place here on earth
Somewhere in a desert near a mountain was the place of my birth

If you could tell me i would cry if you could tell me
I would fly there if you could tell me my oh my my oh my

Somewhere out there in the blossoms of the cactus
I lost my mare walked up a ridge and at the top I saw her running off i don't know where

If you could tell me i would cry if you could tell me

The naked sun she burns me down she turns my flesh to this dark brown
Won't someone please give me a place to go i assure you i don't ever ever know
