

Fall Away

Lauren Hoffman

I feel and felt the wind outside,
And I didn't have a thing to say,
The moon and the stars released the sky,
And I watched them fall away.

I called on gods to light my way,
And they whispered softly in my mind,
And still I praise the dawn of day,
When they crawl and fall behind.

I heard the warning of the sun,
Remember all the days I strayed, I found you,
The moon fell down and made no sound,
Watch her fall away.

Where's my mind I lost it too,
And you put my love away,
I lifted all my thoughts and flew,
And you watched me fall away.

And you watched me fall away,
I heard the warning of the sun,
Remember all the days I strayed, I found you,
The moon fell down and made no sound,
Watch her fall away.

I heard the warning of the sun,
Remember all the days I strayed, I found you,
The moon fell down and made no sound,
Watch her fall away.
