

The Chemist Said It Would Be Alright

Lauren Hoffman

The chemist said it would be alright
But I've never been the same
Oh the chemist said it would be alright
But I've never been the same

Feel always from music on the street, hmm hmm
With the people crouching their God I should be glad
Of another

The chemist said it would be alright
But I've never been the same
The chemist said it would be alright
But I've never been the same

Everywhere an oink oink
Everywhere everywhere an oink oink
Everywhere, 'verywhere an oink oink

It would, the chemist said, (everywhere),
It would be alright (everywhere an oink oink)
But I've never been the same
Everywhere an oink oink

Oh the chemist said (everywhere everywhere)
It would be alright (an oink oink)
But I've never been (everywhere) the same (everywhere an oink oink)

But the wicked pack of cars
'where an oink oink
Everywhere, 'verywhere an oink oink
Everywhere, 'verywhere an oink oink
the parties

On a human taxi waste like engine
Thro and wiing
Oh the chemist said it would be alright
But I've never been the same
The chemist said it would be alright
But I've never been the same

Oh the chemist said it would be alright
But I've never been the same
