

The Dragon

Lauren Hoffman

You breathe fire
To burn the world
And such teeth
"The better to eat you with my girl"

You can fly
Take me with you
Yeah you're like a child
You know not what you do

I'm in love with the dragon put my hand in the flame
I know I should have known better but I did it again
I'm in love with the dragon it's the curse of my life
To be the lover of a monster, I'm his dutiful wife

Since I first saw you in the sky
I could feel you in my lungs
Since I was a child
I've had blisters on my tongue

Oh yeah if you're so bad why don't you take it all
Why don't you do me in finally make me fall
You're a tease
I'm a flirt
Oh baby please
Make it hurt

I'm in love with the dragon put my hand in the flame
I know I should have known better but I did it again
I'm in love with the dragon it's the curse of my life
To be the lover of a monster, I'm his dutiful wife
