Just Want You Around

Lauryn Hill

I just want you around I just want you around I just want you around I just want you around

Thought that I had lost you I can hardly make a sound When I thought I couldn't hold you Knew the world had let me down Should have took the time to tell you You keep my feet on the ground I hope that you can hear me Cause I know its not profound

I just want you around I just need you around I just want you around I just need you around

When I thought I was without you I got used to being down It was my fault I used to doubt you But that aint me next time around Please believe me when I tell you Cause all my words are bound This is my cross now let me bare it I was lost but now I'm found-found-found

I just want you around I just need you around I just want you around I just need you around

Took this love for granted Kept my feelings underground Should have watered what I planted Should have known what I have found I'm not used to being lonely I don't like the way it sounds You're the only one I know-yeah Who don't turn my upside-down

I just want you around I just need you around I just want you around I just need you around Yeah I want you around I just need you around
